COLORADO WATERCOLOR SOCIETY

If you have not done so already, please renew your CWS membership ASAP! We will be updating our membership directory over the summer and want to be sure you will be included.

The general meeting in June will be on Tuesday June 27th at 7 pm due to a previously scheduled church event in the meeting space.

Ring out the Old and Bring in the New

By Tim Brenner

This is the time of year when we at CWS ring out the old and bring in the new before our summer break. Which means it is time to recognize the out-going members of your Board of Directors. There are four gracious, hard working people stepping down this June; Diane Fechenbach, a board member for fifteen years, Sharon Wink, a board member for four years, Marsha Ambraziunas, a board member for four years and Zona Jansen, a board member for two years. Thank you all for your time and talents.

We are most grateful. I was recently asked by an individual trying to reactivate the Kansas Watercolor Society, "How does the Colorado Watercolor Society manage to remain so vibrant and successful?" I think the answer is quite simple. It's people like these four, who have a passion for the art of watercolor. I might also add a thank you to the five members who have stepped up to be on the Board.

May, 2017

Karen Hill, Western Slope Board representative, reported on the progress of the CWS Western Slope chapter and their upcoming exhibition in August.

New Signature Members, Ann Arnsmeier, Betty D. Jagers, Steve Griggs and Pam McLaughlin were approved. Congratulations!

The June Collage will be printed a week later than usual. You have a little more time to get your articles in.

The June Board and General Meetings will be on June 27th rather than June 20th.

The Healing Arts Program of Adventist Hospitals has invited CWS artists back for a show at their hospitals in September or October.

Volunteers are needed for a variety of CWS activities. Contact Mary Jo Ramsdale (mjrams@comcast.net) and put your name on her list. It's a great way to meet other CWS artists.

New Board members will be invited to the June 27th CWS Board meeting,
