

CWS GENERAL MEETING
April 17, 2007
First Plymouth Congregational Church

CALL TO ORDER: Gene Youngmann, President called the meeting to order at 7:00 PM with a request for a moment of silence in honor of the tragedy that occurred in Virginia.

GREETER: Carolyn Tegeder introduced new guests attending.

BOARD AND COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Membership: Susan Schmitt announced that renewal notices and ballads are in the newsletter. On the renewal notice you can opt to receive Collage newsletters by email.

Workshops: Beatrice Trautman announced that Salminen and Barnes workshop balances are due 4/30. Charmaine Steadman won the scholarship for the Barnes workshop. Salminen balance due is $265 and Barnes balance due is $175.

WFWS: Gene Youngmann reported that paintings from West Texas are coming in and Utah paintings will arrive tomorrow. Hawaii is becoming a member. They will host in 2016, next year is Tucson in February.

- Pam Hake announced that the pick up time for the State Show is Monday, 11/12/07. Out of 499 paintings, 100 chosen from 99 artists. Naum Katsenelson is the only artist with 2 accepted paintings. Anything 18x24 or larger must be framed with Plexiglas. There are 2 weddings and a dance recital at the Arvada Center the night of the opening so please carpool. Do not park in the grass if it has been raining. Friday, 6/1/07 and Saturday, 6/2/07 are the openings for WFWS and then State Show. Friday will serve desserts and Saturday will serve heavy hors d'oeuvres.

Exhibitions: Randy Hale announced that the Member Show at Lapis Gallery will have an opening on Friday, May 4th from 6:00-10:00pm. Saturday, April 28th will be the paint out from 10:00am-2:00pm. Ten or 11 paintings have sold.

- Bob Coontz will be the juror for the Botanic Garden Show. You can see his work at BobCoontz.com.

FINAL ANNOUNCEMENTS: If anyone has articles to put into the Collage please email the information with "May Collage 2007" on the subject line. Next meeting is Tuesday May 15th at 7:00pm. Golden Acrylic will be at that meeting. Members must sign up tonight for that meeting so there will be enough materials. WFWS bags are still available.