

CWS GENERAL MEETING MINUTES
October 21, 2008
First Plymouth Congregational Church

CALL TO ORDER: President-Elect Sydney Eitel called the meeting to order at 7:00 PM.

REFRESHMENTS: Sydney thanked all who brought the night's refreshments. Volunteers for future meetings were requested to sign the sheet circulated among the membership.

EXHIBITIONS: Pat Foster announced that artists with paintings in the current Plymouth Congregational Show bring bin pieces to the church on Sunday morning, October 26. The chairpersons for the State Watercolor Exhibit in April 2009 will be Valli McDougle and Lionel Sanchez. The chairpersons for the New Trends Show in September 2009 will be Gwen Marie Ehrlich and Marge McMonagle. For the Members Show in November 2009, chairpersons will be Nancy Sullo, Martha Williams, and Janice Beck.

WORKSHOPS: In Elaine Campbell's absence, Sydney Eitel announced that members might now sign up for the Mark Mahaffey workshop to be held April 24-26, 2009.

MEMBERSHIP: Mame Cairns introduced new members. Carla Rouse announced that the new rosters were available at the back table and she requested that she be notified of any corrections. David Castle designed the cover. Membership pins are available for $7.00.

WESTERN FEDERATION: Gene Youngmann reminded members that Saturday, November 14 is the deadline for entries into Western Federation of Watercolor Societies Show to be held in San Diego May 1-31, 2009. The outside dimensions of all mats must be to whole inches and entries must be on disc. Gene announced that his children's book has been printed.

PROGRAMS: Pat Dall announced the program for November 18 will be a critique and reminded members to bring a painting. Four jurors will select their two favorite paintings and give reasons for their decisions. Beatrice Troutman announced that Jean Grastorf would give a demonstration on the watercolor pouring technique after the business meeting.

A drawing was made for a print donated by Jean Grastorf and Marcio Correa won the work.

Respectfully Submitted,
